

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/205468577>

- Home
- Newspapers & Gazettes
- Browse
- The Age \(Melbourne, Vic. : 1854 - 1954\)
- Mon 27 Aug 1928
- Page 13
- PROVINCIAL CITIES AND TOWNS

At the annual smoke night of Ballarat Anglers' Club on Saturday night, Dr. D. F. S. Miller, the retiring president, who closed sixteen years' service, and Mr. V. R. Allan, who retired after 22 years as secretary, received gifts of a case of cutlery and a smoker's chair respectively. Mr. Allan's presentation was made in absentia owing to his being an inmate of Ballarat Hospital, the victim of a motor accident. He listened in to the proceedings, as the result of a special wireless transmission arranged out of compliment to him by Ballarat's radio amateur 3AL and the courtesy of the local postal officials.

At the annual smoke night of Ballarat Anglers' Club on Saturday night, Dr. D. F. S. Miller, the retiring president, who closed sixteen years' service, and Mr. V. R. Allan, who retired after 22 years as secretary, received gifts of a case of cutlery and a smoker's chair respectively. Mr. Allan's presentation was made in absentia owing to his being an inmate of Ballarat Hospital, the victim of a motor accident. He listened in to the proceedings, as the result of a special wireless transmission arranged out of compliment to him by Ballarat's radio amateur 3AL and the courtesy of the local postal officials.