

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/11070468>

- Home
- Newspapers & Gazettes
- Browse
- The Argus \(Melbourne, Vic. : 1848 - 1957\)
- Wed 9 Jun 1937
- Page 7
- BALLARAT AND DISTRICT

For more than an hour on Tuesday representatives of the Ballarat Rotary Club as a good-will gesture arranged by Its international relations committee, enjoyed an interesting radio conversation with representatives of the club at Whittier near Los Angeles Mr G F Morton, president of the Ballarat club headed the local speakers and Whittier Rotary was headed by Dr Horace Wilson and Mr Herbert founder of the Rotary international correspondence In addition to reciprocal club greetings, the various speakers exchanged details of their respective towns and countryside it was emphasised that this was the first radio exchange of the kind arranged by individual Rotary clubs Dr Wilson mentioned that he was a member of the American College of Surgeons The short-wave radio amateurs responsible for the successful conversation were Mr A Kerr of Sturt street, and Mr J Bickell of Whittier.

phreys.
For more than an hour on Tuesday representatives of the Ballarat Rotary Club, as a good-will gesture, arranged by its international relations committee, enjoyed an interesting radio conversation with representatives of the club at Whittier, near Los Angeles. Mr. G. F. Morton, president of the Ballarat club, headed the local speakers, and Whittier Rotary was headed by Dr. Horace Wilson and Mr. Herbert, founder of the Rotary international correspondence. In addition to reciprocal club greetings, the various speakers exchanged details of their respective towns and countrysides. It was emphasised that this was the first radio exchange of the kind arranged by individual Rotary clubs. Dr. Wilson mentioned that he was a member of the American College of Surgeons. The short-wave radio amateurs responsible for the successful conversation were Mr. A. Kerr, of Sturt street, and Mr. J. Bickell, of Whittier.